

Assurance & Advisory

We deliver objectives

Our Assurance and Advisory team provides clients with objective, no-nonsense assurance in financial reporting in order to help business managers and owners fully understand and manage business risks. We review these business risks and controls to thoroughly audit financial statements and to provide other assurance services.

Our objective in performing assurance and advisory services typically include an evaluation of the internal control and accounting systems, which allow us to prepare comprehensive recommendations for improving our clients' business performance and their financial statements.

When we fully understand your concerns and the challenges that lie ahead, we will thoroughly address your needs with the following services:

- Audits of financial statements
- Reviews of financial statements
- Compilations of financial statements
- Forecasts and projections of financial data
- Agreed upon procedures and engagements
- Audits of employee benefit plans
- Other attestation engagements
- Due diligence

Our team provides industry specialists in financial reporting and business processes. The depth and diversity of our combined experience is tremendous and allows us to provide unrivaled Assurance and Advisory services to an ever-growing range of industries including government contractors, health care providers, high-technology firms, manufacturers and non-profit organizations. Our dedicated team is equipped with the latest advanced tools and technologies, which allow us to continually exceed client expectations.
